TRAVEL SUPPLEMENT: SPRING

EAT: Peru

Pisco may have found a home away from home in Soho but there's nothing like the real deal. Holidays to Peru are on the up, and our friends at Mr and Mrs Smith recommend boutique 16th century manor house Inkaterra La Casona in Cusco for those after an on-trend break. Expect immersion into Inca culture: the furniture, local art and interiors are traditional with added modern touches like rain showers, freestanding tubs, heated floors and a candlelit spa - which you'll be thankful for after the trek to Machu Picchu. There is the option of a scenic train ride to the ruins as well, for you not-so-active types.

Inkaterra La Casona, 113 Plaza Las Nazarenas, Cusco, Peru
Rooms from £265 (including breakfast, excluding tax)
